QUEBEC

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. May be taken before a Notary Public, who retains the original, and issues an authenticated copy, within the Province. Without the Province may be taken according to the laws of the place, and should have two witnesses where the acknowledgment is of a mortgage or deed requiring registration; affidavit of the execution must be made by one of the witnesses before a British Minister, Charge d'Affaires, or Consul. In this Province Notary is a public officer.

AFFIDAVITS. In Great Britain and Ireland, before the Mayor, Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission or a Commissioner authorized by the English Lord Chancellor, or Notary Public under his seal of office. In the British Dominions, before a Mayor or Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission or a Judge of the Superior Court. In a foreign country, before a Mayor or Chief Magistrate, under corporation seal, or before a British Consul or Consular Agent, or Commissioner of affidavits appointed by Commission.

ARREST. Upon an affidavit showing a cause of action involving an amount of fifty dollars or more, made or due in Quebec or Ontario, and that the defendant is about to leave the provinces with intent to defraud, or is secreting or converting property with like intent, or is about to do so, or is a trader and insolvent, and refuses to assign his property a writ of summons and arrest may be obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS. May only be made upon demand of creditors.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit showing indebtedness in amount over five dollars and a reason which would permit of a capias being had (See Arrest); the debtor's movables may be attached, and also the debtor's property in the hands of a third party by garnishment. There is a third attachment in "revendication" by which the owner of a movable may replevin it from the third party, detaining it illegally, and a fourth attachment called "Conservatory" exercisable by a vendor of movables on credit, and which operates to place the chattels in judicial custody. They are all issued upon affidavit.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Only known as to vessels in course of construction.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. Not known. Marital relations follow the French system.

DOWER. Two kinds: legal or conventional; first, is one-half of husband's immovables owned by him at time of marriage, or accruing thereafter, from his ancestors, is perfected by the death of the husband and must be registered; conventional dower may be stipulated for by ante-nuptial contract.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see statute. Household furniture, cooking utensils, etc., $50 in value; pensions granted by official and other institutions to their employees or army and navy pensions or pay, salaries and fees of master, tutor, school teachers, professors or public officers, except those of the Province, the salaries of public officers and employees of the Province, Clerk or other municipal officer or employee, or assessors may be garnished for one-fifth of each month's salary not in excess of one thousand dollars per annum; one-fourth of each month's salary not in excess of two thousand dollars; one-third in excess of two thousand dollars; one-fifth of the salary or earnings of a pilot may be taken; other salaries and wages are exempt as to four-fifths when they are not in excess of three dollars a day, as to three-fourths when they are not in excess of six dollars; as to two-thirds when they exceed six dollars, and also spinning and weaving implements for family use, axe or gun, fishing lines and nets, six traps, one tube, washing machine, wringer, sewing machine, two pails, three flat irons, blacking brush, scrubbing brush, broom, drawings, paintings and books to the number of fifty volumes, three months' provisions and fuel, team of farm horses or yoke of oxen, horse, vehicle, sleigh, harness, cow, two pigs, four sheep with their wool or its products and fodder for the above animals; also a plow, harrow, working sleigh, tumbril, hay wagon and necessary harness. To a professional man or artisan the books relating to his profession or art, etc., $200 in value and his implements, etc., used in such pursuit $200 in value, fifteen stands of bees. Religious furnishings, family portraits, subject matter of a trust, alimony.

GARNISHMENT. (See Attachments.)

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement any rate; banks limited to seven per cent.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Sovereign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day, The Epiphany, The Annunciation, The Ascension, Corpus Christi, St. Peter and St. Paul's Day, All Saints' Day, Conception Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

JUDGMENTS. A lien for thirty years; the registration of the judgment makes it in effect a mortgage against the debtor's lands.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. Must register their claim within thirty days from completion; must be enforced within a year except where otherwise stipulated in the contract.

LIMITATIONS. Thirty years: upon judgments and mortgages, and this term also perfects adverse possession of land, etc. Ten years: perfects adverse possession acquired in good faith under a colorable title; for the recission of contracts on the ground of error, fraud, violence or force; upon a warranty of an architect of contractor. Five years: upon commercial paper, on sales of movables not otherwise specified; for work, labor and services or professional services, against Notaries or advocates for the recovery of Instruments of Title, and for arrears of interest and rent. Two years: for torts and injuries not otherwise provided for, for service hire, by a teacher for tuition, board or lodging. One year: for slander or libel, for wages of clerks, merchants and employees engaged by the day, week or month; for hotel charges, and for bodily injuries by an accident or duel, and to set aside debtor's contracts in defraud of their creditors.

MARRIED WOMEN. Follows the French law; wife may devise her half of the community property; in case of intestacy it descends to her heirs. The wife's legal transactions must usually be authorized by the husband or the Court; she retains her right over her immovable property owned at the time of marriage; all movables owned at the time of marriage, or all property acquired thereafter is community property and may be administered and disposed of by the husband, who, however, can only devise one-half.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-judicial day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-judicial day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. No specific statutory provisions.

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS: FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. May be taken before a Judge of the Supreme Court or County official seal, or a Justice of the Peace in his county within this Province; without this Court, a member of either Council, a Registrar of Deeds, a Notary Public under his Province before a Commissioner of affidavits, acting under the statute or one appointed by the Lord Chancellor in Chancery in England; a Notary Public under his seal of office, the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of a Borough, or Municipality under the official seal; an English Minister, Ambassador, Consul or Vice-Consul, or the Governor of a State under their official seals.

AFFIDAVITS. May be taken before a Commissioner of affidavits within the Province, and before a Commissioner authorized by law to take oaths, or a Notary Public, without the Province.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit showing indebtedness and the amount due an order may be obtained authorizing the issue of the writ; when the action is for an uncertain sum or for damages, upon due application to the Judge, writ may be obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be made to the Sheriff of the county, unless a majority in value of the creditors consent to another disposition; assignee must give notice to creditors of meeting within five days of the date of the assignment, to be had within twelve (12) days after notice, claims filed by the creditors must be verified and the assignee must prepare his account as assignee one month thereafter and then every three months. Preferences vitiate the assignment unless made for bona fide present advances.

ATTACHMENTS. May only issue after judgment.

BILLS OF SALE. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES Must be registered within thirty days after execution, together with an affidavit of the witness and of the mortgagee, or his agent, that the indebtedness is just and true, that the mortgage is bona fide as security and not for the purpose of preventing the creditors of the mortgagor from reaching the goods; a lien for a year may be renewed by filing an affidavit, and statement setting forth the amount due.

CONDITIONAL SALES. Statement thereof must be filed with the registrar of purchaser's County within ten days after execution, and a copy of such statement must be left with vendee within twenty days thereafter and twenty days after demand of the creditors every vendor, etc., must file with the Registrar a verified statement of the amount due, in default of which he forfeits his rights under the conditional sale as against such demanding creditor.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

DOWER. Life estate to widow in one-third of reality of which husband died seized.

EXEMPTIONS. Money due from the Crown to an individual in the hands of an officer for the purpose of payment to said individual is exempt from attachment in garnishment proceedings.

GARNISHMENT. Upon examination of the debtor after judgment, debts found due to him may be garnished, save earnings to the extent of twenty dollars.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Dominion Day (July 1), Labor Day (1st Monday in September), December 25, Sovereign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement any rate.

JUDGMENTS. Live for twenty years. A lien for five years upon lands after recording in the Registry Office, may be renewed while the judgment lives.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. No specific provisions.

LIMITATIONS. Sixty years: Perfects adverse possession in the case of the Crown. Twenty years: To recover land. Six years: Upon contract, notes or deeds. Two years: For slander, assault and battery and other torts.

MARRIED WOMEN. May carry on business, make contracts and dispose of their property practically the same as unmarried women.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bill not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-judicial day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-judicial day shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. Upon filing a bond in double the value to the Sheriff in a case where property has been wrongfully taken or detained, a writ of replevin may issue.

NOVA SCOTIA

ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. None used. Affidavits take their place.

AFFIDAVITS. To prove deeds may be taken before a Registrar or Judge of the Supreme or County Court, a Barrister of the Supreme Court, a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner of the Supreme Court or a Notary Public within the Province; without the Province before a Commissioner appointed to take affidavits; a Judge of a Court of Record, a Mayor or Recorder of a corporation, a Notary Public, British Minister, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular-Agent, other affidavits may be taken before the Judge of a court of Record, a Notary Public, or a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of the Province, or an English Consul.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit showing cause of action in a sum over twenty dollars and belief that the defendant is about to leave the Province, an order will issue from a Judge or a Commissioner directing the apprehension of the defendant, and he may be held to bail. If the amount is under eighty dollars, a similar order may be obtained from a Magistrate.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must be made to the official assignee; preferences vitiate the assignment.

ATTACHMENTS. Upon filing an affidavit in a case involving a sum of more than twenty dollars, the amount due, and that the defendant has absconded, or is absent from the Province, the writ may issue, and the Sheriff will levy for the amount endorsed upon the writ, with costs amounting to one hundred and twenty dollars, in an action to recover eighty dollars or more; in an action to recover less than eighty dollars, twenty-eight dollars for costs.

BILLS OF SALE. May be filed with the Registrar of Deeds of maker's district, or if a non-resident, where the goods are, together with an affidavit of grantor as to its execution and good faith. Those given as security for advances must show this fully by verified recital. A lien for three years may be renewed by filing a statement showing the amount due within thirty days, preceding the expiration of the term.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. (See Bills of Sale.)

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provisions.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provisions.

CURTESY. Life estate to husband in property of deceased wife owned at the time of death.

DOWER. Life estate to widow of one-third husband's realty.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see Statute. Household furniture, implements of trade, cow, spinning and weaving implements, thirty days' provisions and fuel, two sheep, one hog, fodder for thirty days, religious books to the number of ten.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, December 25, Sovereign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day. Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement as high as seven per cent. upon real estate security, or ten per cent. upon personal security. Usury: Penalty, loss of excess interest; judgments bear six per cent.

JUDGMENT. Must be registered in Registry of Deeds of district. A lien for six years, but may be revived by leave of court; executions may issue annually, remaining in force for one year.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. No specific statutory provisions.

LIMITATIONS. Twenty years: On judgments and contracts under seal. Six years: On contracts not under seal; for arrears or debt, rent or interest.

MARRIED WOMEN. May hold, acquire and dispose of her property as if unmarried; may contract and render herself liable in respect to her separate property; may sue or be sued. When consent of her husband registered she may trade under her own name.

REPLEVIN. No specific statutory provisions.
